

SOCIAL WORKERS - COUNSELORS - NURSES - PHYSICIANS - ADVOCATES

BREAKING BARRIERS

Symposium

FREE VIRTUAL
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

2022

MAY 25 & 26 - 9:30 AM - 3:30 PM (CST)

FREE 2-DAY WEBCAST POWERED BY GOTO MEETING (INCLUDES AUDIO/VIDEO LEARNING EXPERIENCE, COURSE MATERIALS AND CERTIFICATES OF ATTENDANCE - CONTACT HOURS WILL NOT BE OFFERED)

TO REGISTER, VISIT SEAETC.COM/CALENDAR OR SCAN THE QR CODES

DAY ONE - Perspectives in Substance Abuse Prevention

Sessions Include:

- Alabama Opioid Response Strategy
- Mariyam Javed, Pharm-D, MPH
- Perspectives on Psychopharmacology
- Dr. Alftan Dyson, Pharm-D, BCACP, AAHIVP
- Co-Occurring Disorders: A Community Perspective on Preventing Misuse and Abuse
- Yvette Hester, M.Ed.
- Take Back, Educate and Inundate in Ryan White Care Settings
- Elana Parker Merriweather, Ed.S., LPC, AADC

SCAN FOR DAY ONE

DAY TWO - Perspectives in Ending the HIV Epidemic

Sessions Include:

- Ending the Epidemic: A Rural Health Perspective
- Pamela Payne-Foster, MD, MPH
- Dangers of Conscience: Ethics in the Care of LGBTQ Clients
- Paul Hard, PhD
- Care of Gender Nonconforming Patients
- Cordelia Stearns, MD, AAHIVS
- Ending the HIV Epidemic among Youth and Young Adults: A Focus on Status Neutral Approaches
- Samantha Hill, MD, MPH

SCAN FOR DAY TWO

FOR INFORMATION CALL (334) 356-1524
OR EMAIL JVANMEGEN@MAOI.ORG.

Access to computer, tablet or smart phone with stable Internet required for training.

GoTo Meeting access information will be provided with FREE registration.

Alabama AIDS Education Training Center (Alabama AETC) is a joint initiative between Medical Advocacy and Outreach (MAO) and the Southeast AIDS Education and Training Center (SE AETC) at Vanderbilt University's Comprehensive Care Clinic, supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).